CountryRisk.io — A COMMUNITY-BASED COUNTRY RISK RATING PLATFORM

Toward a transparent and independent country and sovereign risk rating models!?

The long-term Sovereign Risk Score measures a country's economic and financial strength, as well as its ability and willingness to honour its foreign debt obligations

The long-term Sovereign Risk Score is a quantitatively-derived index based on a large set of indicators, and assesses a country's economic and financial strength. Available on an annual frequency, with values ranging between 0 and 100.

Higher values indicate higher sovereign risk and weaker economic and financial fundamentals. >140 countries with five-year forecasts

► Country risk analysis is expressed in a rating/ranking format but based on a qualitative analysis aimed at integrating the socio-political and economic specificities of each country. Coface takes into account several types of country risk around six different analytical modules:

1. political risk;
2. liquidity and non-transfer risk;
3. sovereign risk;
4. market crisis risk;
5. systemic banking crisis;
6. macroeconomic growth risk

Sovereign risk

The president, Michel Temer, is resisting pressure to resign following corruption allegations made against him in May. Even if he does survive (we now assume that he will), governability will weaken, reducing the likelihood that pension reforms will be approved in Congress. This will set back medium–term fiscal consolidation plans and rekindle lingering concerns about debt sustainability.

Currency risk

The latest political crisis caused a sell–off in the Real, but it has since regained ground (to R3.15:US$1 in late July). Narrowing interest–rate differentials will weaken the Brazilian currency as the Banco Central do Brasil (the central bank) continues to ease monetary policy while US policy rates rise. Brazil has a large reserves cushion.

Business Environment Risk Intelligence BERI provides a Political Risk Index assessing the social and political environment of a country. It is built on the opinion and scores provided by a hundred experts with a diplomatic or political science background. Governance quality is included into political risk analysis along with government effectiveness and social indicators. http://beri.com	Political Risk Services[1] The PRS analyses cover a hundred countries and are updated on a quarterly basis. International Country Risk Guide measures and tracks corruption perception in government, law and order, expropriation risk, as well as the quality of bureaucracy. These measures stem from the subjective assessment of experts around the world. http://prsgroup.com	Thanks to its unique policy dialogue with more than 180 countries, the World Bank has developed a comprehensive database of composite governance indicators, measuring perceptions of voice and accountability, political stability, government effectiveness, regulatory quality, rule of law, and corruption. www.worldbank.org/wbi/governance/
The London-based Economist Intelligence Unit (EIU) provides a comprehensive é-year forecasting country risk analysis on some 100 EMCs., on a quarterly basis. The EIU method flows from expert's answers to a series of 77 predetermined qualitative and quantitative questions. http://eiu.com	To look upon governance and corruption, Moody's takes into consideration the structures of social interaction, social and political dynamics, as well as the economic fundamentals. Moody's relies on the judgment of a group of credit risk professionals to weigh the various risk factors as well as the impact of each of these factors upon business prospects. http://moodys.com	Standard and Poor's rating approach is both quantitative and qualitative. It is based on a checklist of 10 categories, including governance and political risk. The political risk factors gauge the impact of politics on economic conditions, as well as the quality of governance and the degree of government support in the population. S&P assigns short term and long-term ratings. http://standardandpoors.com
Euromoney publishes ratings of some 180 countries since 1982 on a semi-annual basis. The methodology is built from a blend of quantitative criteria and qualitative factors coming from surveys with about 40 political analysts and economists. Political risk receives a 25% weighting, as much as economic performance. Countries are graded on scale from 0 (worst) to 100 (best). www.euromoney.com	Institutional Investor's ratings are published twice a year since 1979 to assess the creditworthiness of about 150 countries, based on a survey of some 100 international bankers' perception of creditworthiness, including economic, financial and socio-political stability criteria. The resulting score scales from zero (very high chance of default) to 100 (least chance of default). www.institutionalinvestor.com	Transparency International, a non-profit non-governmental organization in Berlin, provides an annual survey of corruption practices in nearly 90 countries since 1995. The Corruption Perception Index is based on a wide network of information sources with local NGOs, domestic and foreign corporations, investors, and business contacts. www.transparency.org

Heritage Foundation established since 1985, in partnership with the WSJ, an economic freedom index for some 160 countries, both industrialized and developing. The ranking is based on various socio-political and economic criteria, including political stability, state interference, regulatory framework, institutional strength, and corruption scope. www.heritage.org	PricewaterhouseCoopers's Opacity Index measures the lack of clear, accurate, formal and widely accepted practices in a country's business environment. As such, it focuses on the relative state of corrupt business practices, the transparence of the legal system and the regulatory framework. It represents a quantitative approach to measuring opacity and its resulting extra risk premium that stems from the additional business and economic costs. www.opacityindex.com/	The Institute for Management Development's World Competitiveness Report analyses 49 industrialized and emerging economies around the world based on a far-reaching survey since 1989. Its analysis of the institutional framework addresses issues such as state efficiency, transparency of government policy, public service's independence from political interference, bureaucracy as well as bribery and corruption. www.imd.ch
Freedom House focuses since 1972 on corruption levels in a number of developing and transition economies around the world. FH publishes an annual assessment of state of freedom in various countries on the base of political rights and civil liberties. Political stability and civil liberties are ranked on a scale of 1 (best) to 7 (worst). www.freedomhouse.org/ratings.index.html	The Political and Economic Stability Index of Lehman Brothers and Eurasia measures relative stability in around 20 EMCs by integrating political science theories with financial markets developments. The monthly evaluation uses both quantitative and qualitative criteria, including institutional efficiency, political legitimacy, economic performance, and government effectiveness. www.legsi.com	Political and Economic Risk Consultancy (PERC) specializes in strategic business information and analysis in East and Southeast Asia, with emphasis on corruption and business costs. Annual risk reports survey over 1,000 senior expatriates living in to obtain their perceptions of corruption, labor quality, intellectual property rights risks and other systemic shortcomings. www.asiarisk.com
